The 2019 Leadership Summit
Navigating Generational Expectations
Stop, Collaborate, Listen: A New Perspective

Generations of Ideas

Leadership Summit 2019 invites all generations to explore and address the challenges, opportunities, and scenarios of working together. The focus of the Summit is how to optimize the strengths that each generation brings to a vibrant, multi-generational workplace. It is not about discussing any one generation or stereotyping anyone or any generation.

Wednesday, July 31, 2019, 1:00 – 5:00pm
Northeast Delta Dental Conference Center, 2 Delta Drive, Concord, NH
Cost: $75 (discounts are available)

Attend to understand what defines a generation and the experiences that have influenced each generation. Work with other participants to identify techniques to address workplace scenarios related to diverse expectations of multiple generations and discuss how to influence positive workplace change that benefits both the organization and all generations.

Agenda Overview
	The dynamic, insightful, and entertaining Dr. Gerri King , social psychologist, author, speaker and facilitator will guide us in creating a common understanding of each generation and their expectations.
	Will Stewart , Executive Director of StayWorkPlay New Hampshire and others will share data on what is important to each generation.
	Learn from each other through small group discussions and networking. Share ideas, challenges, and opportunities to build collaborative, multi-generational workplaces that attract and retain a talented workforce.

Join the Summit to Stop, Collaborate, and Listen and gain new perspective to Navigate Generational Expectations
